

Dig Into a New Day: Our World Is a Garden of Delights

2024 Art and Poster Contest for the 2025 NAHMA Calendar

The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) is proud to kick off the annual art/calendar contest. We anticipate that more than 5,000 children, seniors, and residents with special needs nationwide will participate in the calendar art contest this year.

We have added a subtheme to reinforce a more positive use of time and encourage a broader range of submissions. The contest's underlying message will continue to have a drug-free theme, but we also wanted to open the door for more avenues of expression. The subtheme for the 2024 contest is:

Dig Into a New Day: Our World Is a Garden of Delights

Below are contest rules and tips for the various Affordable Housing Management Associations (AHMAs), property management companies, and on-site property managers on how to hold an art contest. If you require additional information on NAHMA's national finalists' contest, please contact Brenda Moser at the NAHMA office at 703-683-8630, ext. 114.

CONTEST RULES

Who is eligible to enter the calendar contest?

The poster contest is open to children and senior residents 55 years or older who live in a community of a NAHMA- or a local AHMA-member company, as well as residents with special needs who live in a permanent supportive housing community or Section 811 community of a NAHMA- or a local AHMA-member company.

How does the contest work?

Local AHMAs will select up to three winning posters, photographs, computer art, or other media—such as websites, tile, macramé, needlework, etc., which must be submitted as a photograph—from each category (i.e., seniors, residents with special needs and each children's grade level). *See detailed descriptions for format and size in another section of the contest rules.

The five grade categories for children are based on the grade level the contestants have completed by June 2024:

- Kindergarten-first grade
- Second-third grade
- Fourth-sixth grade
- Seventh-ninth grade
- 10th-12th grade

While we encourage community activities to discuss the theme and contest rules, ENTRIES MUST BE CREATED BY THE INDIVIDUAL WITHOUT ASSISTANCE.

All AHMA winning submissions are forwarded to NAHMA, where a distinguished panel of judges will select the 13 winning entries that will appear on the pages of the 2025 calendar, including submissions from children and seniors & residents with special needs. One exceptional entry will be selected as the grand prizewinner, which will appear on the cover. Only children are eligible to become the grand prizewinners.

All art submitted to NAHMA becomes the property of NAHMA, and NAHMA has the right to use the art for publicity, publications, and advertisements.

How are the art submissions judged?

Entries are judged on the artist's ability to create a submission with the Dig Into a New Day: Our World Is a Garden of Delights contest subtheme. The artwork must be original and cannot be a replica or reproduction of someone else's creation or trademark. Artwork that is not original will be disqualified.

Specifically, judges consider:

- Representation of the subtheme Dig Into a New Day: Our World Is a Garden of Delights.
- Originality of the submission.
- Quality: Is the art submission appealing to the eye?
- Overall Artistic Ability: Does the art submission show some degree of creativity and skill for its age group? Will the submission be able to be reproduced with reasonable quality and clarity?

What specifications must the artistic submission meet to enter?

- Posters must be done on poster board (or heavy art paper) measuring 22 inches x 28 inches.
- Any media may be used for the posters, including paints, crayons, colored pencils, chalk, and collage, but contestants are advised to ensure that the media selected:
 - Results in a flat surface, and

- Can be adequately protected against damage.
- The poster must be marked clearly with the official entry form attached.
- Photography can be in color or black and white and must measure at least 8 inches x 10 inches but not larger than 22 inches x 28 inches.
- Website design: webpages must be printed in color and measure 8.5 inches x 11 inches, and then mounted to poster board measuring 22 inches x 28 inches.
- Digital art must be printed and measure at least 8.5 inches x 11 inches but not larger than 22 inches x 28 inches.
- Other media, such as tile, macramé, carving, quilting, needlework, etc., must be submitted as a photograph measuring at least 8 inches x 10 inches but not larger than 22 inches x 28 inches.

Trademarked cartoon characters, proper names of individuals, product brands, or the name of the development or AHMA are not allowed on any submitted posters or other art forms. Submissions from an AHMA that have any of these items will be disqualified.

The official form (see the end of this document) with the following information must be legible (i.e., printed or typed) and attached to each submission.

Honorable Mentions

Children and seniors & residents with special needs in our communities from across the nation who participate in the annual art contests held by regional and state AHMA's are eligible to be selected as regional AHMA art contest Honorable Mentions. Their artwork will be featured nationally in a special section of the NAHMA 2025 Drug-Free Kids Calendar. These participants are in addition to those selected as national winners.

What are the contest prizes?

The winners of each local AHMA's contest receive various prizes from the AHMA.

All national contest winners receive educational scholarships in the form of a NAHMA Educational Foundation check. All national winners will appear in the 2025 calendar with a short artist bio and photo.

The national contest's grand prizewinner, whose art will appear on the calendar's cover, receives an educational scholarship and a trip to Washington, D.C., where he or she will be honored at the NAHMA Fall Meeting in late October 2024.

NAHMA Prizes

- Grand Prizewinner: $2,500 check and a trip to Washington, D.C.
- National Winners: $1,000 check
- Honorable Mentions: $100 check

There is a contest-specific entry form for Seniors & Residents with Special Needs and a separate entry form for Children. Please encourage residents to fill out the correct form that applies to them.
